THE ARCHBISHOP

On, ROMANISM IN THE UNITED STATES, is a trathful narrative of the plans, doings and designs of the Catholic party in the United States, headed by their most aminent teachers. The author commences his revelations with the year 1643, and brings you, step by step, to the present time. He exposes the secret workings of the whole communion throughout the United States, the secret reasons for attempting.

the exclusion of the Bibls from the Public Schools, the division of the School Fund, the silencing of certain of the public Press, the stepping of Fine Thinking among the masses, &c., &c., &c.

THE WATCHWORD is ADVANCE with the TIMES—MUSIC at HALF PRICE at SCHUBERTH & Co.'s. No. 800 Broadway.—We agree fally with the verdict of a musical paper, that

This fact induced some peablishers to put their Negro and Dance Music. tagether with reprints of all sense, at half price, with great clamor; but this reduction is only equal to the price of the Original Editions, palpably showing the imposed-bility of competing any longer. Original Editions are those bought by as from the composer and the proof corrected by himself. Regrints are Editions which the publishers get up without pays ent.

Our Catalogue of 20,000 Original Works, for which the composers have been paid, and published by us with a eapital of Half a Million Dollars. has been plundered in such unauthorized issues by some publishers of Boston, Philadelphia, and New-York. To stop this, we hereby declare that we shall sell our Original Editions, which have been reprinted, at:
